

“So...what is the CRC and why should it matter to me?”

They can help to fund your research!

The Council on Research & Creativity – better known as the CRC – is a body of faculty members from many disciplines across the Florida State University campus.

The CRC serves as an advisory panel to the VP for Research and sponsors eight competitive internal grant and four merit-based honorary award programs.

“Great - I need funding for my research! What are some project expenses that I can pay for with a CRC award?”

Each program is a little different in timing, scope, funding, and allowable expenses.

Use the key below to help find the right program for your funding needs:

CRC-Eligible Expenses

- | | |
|---|--|
|  PI Salary* |  “Seed” Funding |
|  RA/GA Stipend |  Equipment |
|  Publication Expenses |  Lab/ Equipment Use Charges |
|  Participant Incentives |  Project-End Expenses |
|  Project/ Performance Space Rental |  Multidisciplinary Work |
|  Supplies |  Travel Expenses* |

* See RFP for details on allowability

“One of these programs looks like a great fit for my research! Where do I go from here? How do I apply for one of these programs?”

Go to the CRC website at internalfunding.research.fsu.edu and look for the CRC Submissions Portal link. The CRC Portal will allow you to electronically apply, submit, and request your Chair & Dean approvals all in one place.

“What if my funding needs are different than what is covered by the CRC programs? Are there any other internal funding options?”

Yes! You can find out about other FSU-funded programs by visiting the Finding Funding page on the Office of Research Development’s website at ord.fsu.edu. Click on the Finding Funding piggybank, then look for the Internal Funding Mechanisms link next to the CRC link.

Be sure to check out the other resources they have available while you’re there!
